HOW TO GET UPDATES & INFORMATION
INFORMATION DISSEMINATED BY ISSS

- To stay informed, you should regularly check
  - Your FIU email
  - The ISSS website

- ISSS may contact you individually by phone or email concerning problems with your status such as:
  - Not registered full-time
  - I-20 about to expire
  - Too many ONLINE classes

When ISSS contacts you for any reason, respond IMMEDIATELY!
Email is the primary method of communication used by ISSS.

Messages will be sent to your FIU email account.
GETTING ADVICE

The only people on FIU’s campus who should be giving you advice related to your immigration status are ISSS advisors

DO NOT

• Drop a class because your academic advisor says it is OK
• Accept employment that has not been authorized by ISSS because an employer says it is OK
• Accept an internship offer because your academic advisor says it is OK
• Travel without appropriate documentation because your friends say it is OK

When in doubt, contact ISSSS!
Who is RESPONSIBLE for making sure you follow immigration laws and remain in valid status?

YOU ARE!!!!
“WHAT HAPPENS IF I FALL OUT OF STATUS?”

“Will I be deported?”

NO!!!

Well, probably not...
FAILURE TO MAINTAIN STATUS

“Out-of-Status”:

• Remaining in the U.S. longer than authorized to do so
• Failing to meet requirements or violating the terms of F-1 status
  • Studying part-time
  • Taking too many online classes
  • Engaging in unauthorized employment
  • Failing to complete one’s program
FAILURE TO MAINTAIN STATUS

Consequences:

- Denial of CPT and OPT
- Denial of employment on campus
- Termination of SEVIS record (permanent blemish on immigration record)
- Difficulty obtaining new visas and/or reentering U.S.
- Possible deportation (but it usually doesn’t get that far)
“HOW DO I GET MY STATUS BACK?”

Reinstatement (USCIS application)

• Immigration benefit an F-1 student may apply for when he or she has fallen out-of-status (i.e. he or she has violated laws/regulations)
• Available only for students who have been out-of-status for less than 5 months

Restart (New SEVIS ID) via Travel

• Student returns to valid status only after making a new entry into the U.S.
• MUST get NEW I-20 from ISSS
